Olga Arabova

Interdisciplinary artist and facilitator

Works with embodied attention, communication and participant experience. Within ODA.dream, she connects artistic concepts with facilitation: introducing a format, supporting group interaction and reflecting on the experience. She contributes to educational and participatory works.

Practice

Participatory and educational formats, embodied attention, communication and group facilitation. In artistic projects, she connects participant interaction with the work’s concept and reflection on the experience.

Education and professional background

Higher education at Astrakhan State Technical University. Professional training includes coaching, embodied practices and dance-movement practices.

Additional training

2014: Project Management Workshop, 32 hours. 2016: Dana Frigoli Argentine tango course diploma. 2018: Experimental Anatomy: Culture of Embodiment, a 24-hour IPPiP seminar. 2021: Agility Coaching, 190 hours including 20 hours of mentoring; the document confirms preparatory training, not an ICF ACC credential.

Documented personal credits

2020: PetroEngineering certificate of honour for personal contribution, professionalism and dedication. Addressee letters from Tech Week, Code of the Province and Moscow 2030, plus the Commission for the Year Three Thousand participation record, also appear as separate entries in the ODA archive; their personal addressees remain documented here. Other personal achievements and training stay in the individual CV.
